

2019 East Valley Man and Woman of the Year

OUR MISSION

Positive Paths exists to support East Valley women in need by providing a life-bridge to economic stability, personal growth and professional achievement.

Positive Paths was established by a group of forward-thinking leaders to encourage others to invest in the futures of East Valley women, and to support East Valley women to be resilient and positive contributors to their communities.

The annual East Valley Night of Heroes event will recognize one female and one male who have significantly contributed to helping women in the East Valley.

Name of nominee:

East Valley Man of the Year East Valley Woman of the Year

Company:

Address:

Email: Phone:

Resident or business is located in the East Valley

Please describe in 300 words or less how this person has significantly contributed to helping women in the East Valley (a minimum of 2 of these criteria must be met):

- a. Demonstrated outstanding leadership and vision;
- b. Introduced new and innovative ways to assist women;
- c. Committed significant volunteer time to a cause that supports women.
- d. Provided significant monetary investment to Positive Paths or another cause that supports women;
- e. Served as a spokesperson for helping women;
- f. Instituted policy change through advocacy;
- g. Created collaborative partnerships to accomplish goals.

Nominated by:

Email: Phone:

Nominations must be received by January 4, 2019. Email nominations to Elizabeth@positivepathsaz.org; For more information or if you have questions please call 480-788-0615.

Nomination form also available online at www.positivepathsaz.org