

2021 East Valley Man and Woman of the Year

OUR MISSION

Positive Paths exists to support East Valley women in need by providing a life-bridge to economic stability, personal growth and professional achievement. We do this through scholarship and mentoring programs, and supportive services. We encourage others to invest in the future of East Valley women in need, and to support East Valley women to be resilient and positive contributors to their communities.

The annual East Valley Night of Heroes event will recognize one female and one male who have significantly contributed to helping women in the East Valley.
